

HIGH INTEREST BOOKS, SETS and SERIES.

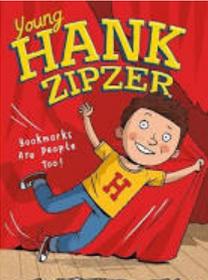

Please note these are not decodable texts, but books which provide high interest, less text and a greater vocabulary readability.

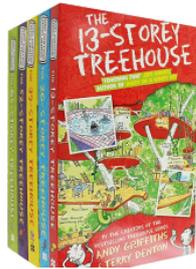

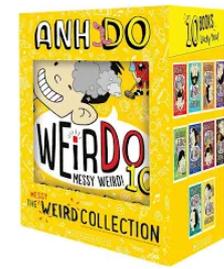

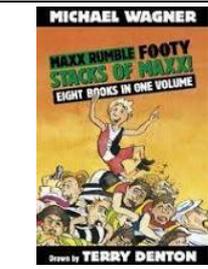

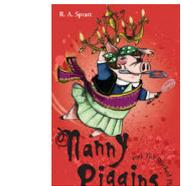

If any of the books are too hard to read, especially some of the reads for older students, then check them out for audio, a great option for Dyslexics who need the challenge of the read, but may find reading large amounts of text and harder words tricky!

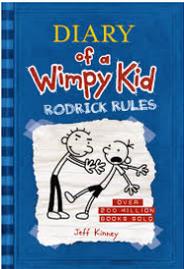

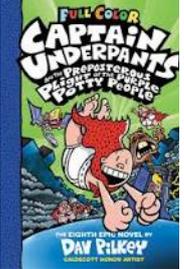

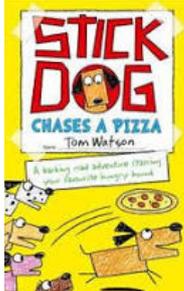

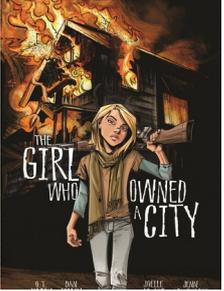

I have not separated these books into girls/boys sections as I have discovered that each student is different and as a result they enjoy different reads.
